

THE RCIA: Forming Intentional Disciples

with Dr. Jerry Galipeau

The Second Vatican Council envisioned the RCIA as a dynamic process of conversion, formation, and apprenticeship leading to the making of disciples committed to a life of service in Christ. Discover ways to bring your RCIA process more closely aligned to this vision, which moves us beyond the classroom model and into a more holistic model of Christian formation.

. . . about Dr. Jerry Galipeau

Dr. Jerry Galipeau is Vice-President and Chief Publishing Officer at World Library Publications. Before coming to WLP, he served for 15 years as Dir. of Liturgy and Music at parishes in Florida and Illinois. Jerry presents keynotes and workshops throughout the US and Canada on the RCIA, liturgical spirituality, ritual music, evangelization, and adult spiritual formation. He was the keynote speaker at the National Association of Pastoral Musicians convention in St. Louis in 2014. Past chair of the Board of Directors of the North American Forum on the Catechumenate, Jerry has been a frequent team member for Forum's institutes. He earned a Doctor of Ministry in liturgical studies from Catholic Theological Union in Chicago in 1999, where he is presently an adjunct faculty member. Jerry's articles have appeared in Catechumenate, Liturgical Singer, Pastoral Music, Today's Parish, Rite, and Church magazines, as well as Sourcebook for Sundays and Seasons. His books are published by WLP, including his latest, Apprenticed to Christ: Activities for Practicing the Catholic Way of Life. Check out Jerry's blog: gottasinggottapray.blogspot.com
